Train the Trainer

Are you an educator or a parent passionate about fostering inclusive environments for children? Little Allies' Train the Trainer program empowers you to become a catalyst for change. Our comprehensive package equips you with the knowledge, tools, and resources needed to lead impactful DEI and inclusive leadership workshops within your educational or parenting community.

What's in it for you? Let's get started!

- 1. Train the Trainer Facilitation Guide: Our detailed facilitation guide provides you with step-by-step instructions for delivering engaging and effective DEI and inclusive leadership workshops. It empowers you to become a confident and influential facilitator.
- 1. Workshop Materials: You'll gain access to a wealth of workshop materials, including pre-recorded presentations, licensed workshop slide decks, and comprehensive workbooks. These resources ensure consistent and powerful delivery, creating lasting impact.
- 1. Optional Live Coaching Sessions: We understand the value of personalized guidance. Optional live coaching sessions are available to support you in navigating challenges, answering questions, and enhancing your facilitation skills.
- 1. Lifetime Access: We believe in ongoing support and growth. You'll enjoy lifetime access to all program materials, allowing you to revisit and reinforce your knowledge whenever needed.

Choose from a Range of Topics: Our program offers a diverse array of topics tailored specifically to educators and parents, including:

- Cultivating Inclusive Classrooms
- Building a Foundation of Allyship at Home
- Nurturing Cultural Understanding and Respect
- Fostering Gender Equality in Education
- Empowering Children with Disabilities
- Addressing Bias and Stereotypes in the Learning Environment
- Creating Safe Spaces for LGBTQ+ Youth
- Plus, any additional learning topics from our workshops page that align with your educational or parenting goals.
